

Short term membership

Eligibility

Golfers who are or expect to be living (and working) in the area for a limited period such as expatriates.

Legal status

Same as corporate members.

Rights

(in accordance with article 9.3 of the 'Internal Rules')

Short Term Members have the same rights as regular members except:

- the right to attend the Annual General Meetings, unless invited to attend
- the right to address the AGM, unless invited by the chairman to do so
- the right to be a member of the Board or to be chairman of any committee
- the right to be a member of a statutory committee, the advisory committee or the committee for the admission of new members

Obligations

A Short Term Member is obliged to comply with all the rules and regulations that apply to members and guests of Rozenstein.

Duration

One year, with the possibility of an annual extension to a maximum of four years (as a general rule). Short Term Membership can commence any calendar month.

Application and termination of short term membership

Interested golfers should apply for Short Term Membership at least two weeks prior to the preferred starting date. Two members of the executive committee will interview applicants. The executive committee has the right to reject applications without stating reasons.

Termination of the membership is possible at any time after a minimum membership period of one year by written notice of one calendar month to the club secretariat. The member will in that case receive a credit for the annual contribution for the remainder of the calendar year.

The NGF fee and the catering fee will not be (partly) refunded.

Annual short term membership fees

The annual Short Term Membership fee is the same as the fee for regular members (€940,-) plus € 475 (in lieu of entrance fee).

The NGF fee (€18,50), catering fee (€90,-), cost of an E-range key (€10,-) and possibly other financial obligations are the same as for regular members.
